

First Aid for children

INTRODUCTION

First aid is the immediate care given to a person who has an injury or illness. It is the first help given to a person who is injured or ill. It is the first help given to a person who is injured or ill. It is the first help given to a person who is injured or ill.

STROKE

A stroke is a sudden loss of brain function due to a lack of blood flow to the brain. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency.

UNCONSCIOUS

An unconscious person is someone who is not awake or does not respond to their surroundings. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency.

HEAVY BREATHER

Heavy breathing is a sign of a respiratory emergency. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency.

HEAVY BREATHING

Heavy breathing is a sign of a respiratory emergency. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency.

HEAVY BREATHING

Heavy breathing is a sign of a respiratory emergency. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency.

FEVER

A fever is a high body temperature. It is a sign of an infection. It is a sign of an infection. It is a sign of an infection.

ASTHMA & ALLERGIES

Asthma and allergies are common conditions. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency. It is a medical emergency.

