

20 Questions to ask mom

1. When did you know you wanted to be a mom?
2. How did you decide how many children to have?
3. What do remember about the day you had your children? What was the experience like and How did you feel?
4. How did you choose the names for your children?
5. What did you love about pregnancy?
6. What did you hate about pregnancy?
7. Where did you go for information and advice on raising kids?
8. What did you love most about the infant stage?
9. What did you love most about raising a toddler?
10. What did you love most about your children's elementary-school years?
11. What (if anything) did you love most about the teenage years?
12. What's a special moment that stands out with each of your children? Is there something that surprised you or made you laugh?
13. What nicknames did you have for your kids and how did they come to be?
14. Tell me something unique about each of your kids.
15. What's surprised you most about being a parent?
16. What's the most difficult part about being a mother?
17. If you could time travel back in time would you change anything you've done?
18. What's the best part about being a mother?
19. What advice do you have for your children, and their children regarding raising kids? What do you want them to remember?
20. What do you want your kids to remember about you?