

After Christ cast seven demons out of her body, Mary Magdalen became one of His most devoted disciples. Following the crucifixion, she is the first to see the empty tomb and to witness the risen Christ.