

God's Treasure Chest

When the People sinned, there were consequences, but God was willing to forgive any who would turn to Him. It is the same all through the Bible, and it is the same for us today.

Look up the book of 1 Samuel in your Bible and go to chapter 12 to fill in the blanks. (The big ones mean 1 word each.)

Should we let our sins be a reason to completely turn away from God?

verse 20: "And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not; ye have done all this wickedness: yet I _____, ye _____, & _____ from following the LORD..."

How often does God still warn us of consequences?

verse 25: "But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be _____..."

How much of ourselves should we give Him?

verse 22: "...but serve the LORD with a _____ your heart."

Is there any good to be found in not following God?

verse 21: "And turn ye not aside; for then should ye go after vain things, which cannot _____ nor _____; for they are _____."

How does God love us? Why or why not?

verse 22: "For the LORD will _____ forsake his people for _____ great _____'s sake; because it hath _____, the LORD to make you his people."

How can we do for someone else who is struggling with sin?

verse 23: "Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to _____ for you: but I will _____ you the good and the right way."

How is our laughter that will help us appreciate the Lord?

verse 24: "...consider how great things he hath done for _____"
