The image shows a printable envelope template. The envelope is laid flat, showing the front panel on the left and the back panel on the right. The top and bottom flaps are at the top and bottom respectively. The front panel features a large rectangular area for writing, followed by the word "For:" in a large, bold font. Below "For:" is a table with two columns: "To" and "Amt.". The table has 12 rows, numbered 1 through 12 on the left side. The back panel is blank.
