

Count the number of shells in each row. Then fill in as many circles as there are shells.
For example, if you count three shells in the row, fill in three circles.

