HANGMAN

DIRECTIONS: One player begins by thinking of a word or phrase. Shade the squares at the bottom of the page that you will NOT need. Don't forget to shade a block between words. The other player should begin to guess letters. Write the letter (even if you're not placed) in the correct block each time a correct letter is guessed. If a letter is guessed wrong trace a line around one of the body parts and cross the letter off on the left side of the card. If the other person guesses the word before all of the body parts are traced they win and should select the word for the next game.
