

Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer

Fill in the blanks with a word that fulfills the requirement written below the line.

When an * is attached to a descriptor, carry over that word to each appropriate line as the real song does.

You know Dasher and Dancer
And Prancer and Vixen,
Comet and Cupid
And Donner and Blitzen.
But do you _____
(verb)

The most _____ of all?
(adjective) (*animal)

_____ the _____-nosed _____
(*Person in room) (*adjective) (*animal)

Had a very _____
(adjective) (*body part)

And if you ever _____ it
(past-tense verb)

You would even say it _____
(verb+s)

All of the other _____
(*plural animal)

Used to _____ and call him _____
(verb) (plural noun)

They never let poor _____
(*Person in room)

Play in any _____ (*animal) (plural noun)

Then one _____ Christmas Eve
(adjective)

Santa came to _____ (verb)

_____ with your _____ so _____
(*Person in room) (*body part) (adjective)

Won't you _____ my _____ tonight?
(verb) (noun)

Then all the _____ him
(*plural animal) (past-tense verb)

And they _____ out with glee
(verb+ed)

"_____ the _____-nosed _____
(*Person in room) (*adjective) (*animal)

You'll go _____ in history!"
(direction)

