

MAD LIBS®

SELECTING A TREE

No Christmas season can be really _____ unless you have a/an _____ tree in your _____. If you live in a city, you will see many vacant _____ filled with hundreds of _____ for sale. If you live in the country, you can get your own _____ right out of the forest. Go out with a/an _____ and _____, and when you see a/an _____ tree you like, you can dig it up and plant it in a/an _____.
Then you can use it for _____ years. To make sure your tree is fresh, shake the branches and see if the _____ fall off onto the _____. And make sure the tree is very _____.
Nothing looks worse than a/an _____ tree. Just follow these directions and you can have a perfectly beautiful _____ in your front room for weeks. Remember, poems and Mad Libs are made by fools like _____, but only _____ can make a tree.
