

American Trivia Quiz

1. In 1626 the Dutch purchased this piece of property for about $24.
2. The first census took place in 1790, took 18 months, with a final tally of?
3. Who wrote the book, Uncle Tom's Cabin?
4. Author Samuel Langhorne Clemens wrote under the pen name of?
5. Al Reach was the first baseball player to be paid to play. How much?
6. What industry was instrumental in initiating time zones across America?
7. The Miss American Pageant began in what year?
8. The only woman to receive the Medal of Honor was this army's first female surgeon.
9. This American product was introduced in 1937 and was a soldier's staple food item.
10. What is the Capital of New Hampshire?
11. Which of the five Great Lakes is 100% in the U.S.A.?
12. The Mississippi and Missouri Rivers intersect north of what city?
13. Which U.S. State has the highest tourist revenue?
14. Who is the major league pitcher referred to as "The Big Unit"?
15. What is the time for the longest filibuster on record?
16. This "Father of the Constitution" was President when the British burned the White House in 1814.
17. This state is known as "The Natural State"
18. There is only one state that shares it's border with only one other state.
19. Which state's capital at 7,000 ft. above sea level, is the highest city in the U.S.?
20. The geographic center of North America, falls in which state in the U.S.?
21. Who was first to sign the Declaration of Independence?
22. This third President's last name is the same as the middle name of this 20th-century President?
23. Pennsylvania is the only state of the original 13 colonies that does not border what?
24. This American city has over 2,000 bridges, more than any other town in the world?
25. Who was the only bachelor President?
26. What does the acronym H.O.M.E.S. Stand for?
27. Who was the 1st U.S. Born citizen to become President?
28. Which state is birthplace of the most presidents?
29. The only state to have east & west borders 100% made of water, a river bordering each side?
30. The state with only one syllable?

Answers for American Trivia located on the Page 3.