22: He would practice forgiveness in our relationship and with others...that he would recognize any roots of bitterness & yield any resentment and unforgiving attitudes to the Lord.
23: He would be a good father—disciplining his children and loving them unconditionally.
24: He would have a balanced life—that he would balance work and play...that he fear God, but also gain favor with people he knows at work and church.

25. He would be courageous in his stand against evil and injustice, stand for the truth. Protect us from Satan's attacks.

25. He would discover and live his God-given purpose...that he offer his dreams to the Lord.

care of his body—the temple of the HS...that he would practice self-control by making wise food choices and exercises to stay healthy.

20 28: He would be a man of prayer...seeking & pursuing God in purposeful quiet times.

27: He would surrender his time and talents to the Lord...that his spiritual gifts will be manifest in his career, at church, and in our home.

50: He would serve God and others with pure motives...that he would obey the Lord from his heart, and glorify God in everything.

21/ He would recognize the iles of the Enemy in his life. That his attributes & actions will be guided by the truth as he brings his thoughts into contivity to the Word of God.

Prayer far my Oildren

- For their genuine salvation
- For their future spouse
- For them to have love & respect towards parents and authority over them (with teachable spirits)
- Courage to stand up against temptation & peer pressure
- Morally pure/physical purity until marriage
- Physical protection from harm

Stirit Tanatil be

Submissive, loving, attentive, nurturing, respectful, not talking back, not resentful, physically please my husband (selflessly), keep myself up, keep my home up, confront sin in kindness, be forgiving and not bitter.

Proger for myself as a Malker

Alid Familia

To be loving and gentle, consistent in discipline, nurturing, patient, diligent to teach my children the Bible, an example of godliness, always discipline in love, and that my children might one day "rise up and call me blessed"
