

to do

one thing that I must do today:

one thing that I should probably do sooner rather than later:

one thing that I'll get to when I'm good and ready:

date _____

3 people who amaze me on a regular basis:

_____
_____
_____

Lightning round: table or chair? numbers or letters? falling leaves or emerging buds? high five or thumbs up? wedding ceremony or reception? gas or electric? refrigerator or freezer? hot dog stand or ice cream truck? brushing or flossing? eyebrows or eye-lashes? piano or organ? hangnail or paper cut? colour or black and white printer? sitting or standing? lawn or garden? horse-shoes or croquet? handshake or hug? confrontation or avoidance? diving board or trampoline? hammer or screwdriver? puff or phyllo pastry?

One phrase that I know in a language other than the language(s) I use every day:

_____
_____

What it means:

_____
_____

When/how/where I learned it:

_____
_____
_____

3 spots in my home/office/car where there is certain to be clutter/mess/chaos:

~~~~~
~~~~~

What I'd like to do about one of those spots (if anything):

One can never know enough. The unknown and its call lie even in what we know.

- Eduardo Chillida