

Dashing from here to there, things are so crazy! Why?
Workshops, kids & the phone will take the call,
Bells on our telephone ring, the phone drives us up the wall, we have no time for family or friends, we really want to know, How are you? How's your life? maybe it will snow.
Hope you're ready for Christmas, let's make a treat,
A day or two ago, we thought it was a gift to eat,
For all of our special friends, it was a gift to eat,
Our intentions were top notch, but the fudge would not budge,
Hence here's this year's gift, it's made fudgel
