

THE GREAT FEAST

Name: _____

On Thanksgiving morning, my family woke up feeling very _____ (adjective). We put on our best _____ (plural noun) and got ready to _____ (verb) to the _____ (place).

When we arrived, the smell of _____ (food) filled the air, and in the kitchen a giant _____ (animal) was making a _____ (silly sound) while sitting on the counter. My _____ (family member) shouted, "Who invited that?!" but everyone was too busy _____ (verb ending in -ing) to notice.

At the table, instead of mashed potatoes, we had a giant bowl of _____ (plural noun). Someone spilled _____ (drink) on the _____ (noun), and it turned bright _____ (adjective). We all yelled, "_____!" (exclamation) but then just laughed and ate it anyway.

Finally, before dessert, my _____ (family member) stood up and gave a speech about being thankful for _____ (celebrity/character) and _____ (plural noun). We clapped so hard that the _____ (animal) jumped onto the table and ate _____ (number) slices of pie.

It was the most _____ (adjective) Thanksgiving ever!
