

Dear _____,

Guess who's back from the North Pole? It's me—your Christmas Elf!

I've been busy helping Santa get ready for the big day, and now I'm here to spend the holiday season with you.

I'm so excited to watch all the fun things you do every day.

I'll be flying back to Santa each night to tell him all the wonderful things I see—kindness, sharing, and your amazing Christmas spirit.

Please remember: I can't be touched, or my magic might fade away.

But don't worry—I'll still be around, hiding in silly places and trying my best to stay out too much trouble! (No promises though... I am a cheeky elf!)

Let's make this Christmas full of joy, laughter, and magical moments.

With sparkling elf hugs,

Your Elf _____
