

Happy
Valentine's Day

You are my calm in the middle of noise,
My safest place, my favorite choice.
Through messy days and sleepy nights,
You make the wrongs feel mostly right.

You laugh with me, you stand your ground,
You lift me up when I feel down.
Even when life feels hard to solve,
You're the answer I'll always choose to hold.

So here's my heart, already yours,
Today, tomorrow, forevermore.
Happy Valentine's day my love,
I'd choose you again, again, and again.
