Scripture

The Lord is our strength and comfort in times of sorrow. Though we grieve today, we find peace in His promise of eternal life. May His words bring hope, healing, and the assurance that love never fades.

Dedication

Today we gather to honor and celebrate a life well lived. With love and gratitude, we dedicate this service to the memory of one who touched many hearts. Though deeply missed, their kindness, faith, and legacy will remain with us always.
