

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Today is my _____ (ordinal number) birthday, and I could hardly wait to celebrate. When I woke up, I saw _____ (plural noun) hanging all around the house and a giant _____ (noun) banner on the wall.

My family had been planning the celebration for weeks. They even prepared a table filled with _____ (food), _____ (food), and my favorite snacks.

Soon, my friends arrived carrying _____ (plural noun) and wearing _____ (adjective) party hats. We spent the morning playing _____ (game) and _____ (verb-past) together.

Later, everyone gathered around a _____ (adjective) birthday cake shaped like a _____ (noun). There were _____ (number) candles on top, and everyone sang Happy Birthday while I made a wish.

After blowing out the candles, I opened a _____ (noun) that made me feel incredibly _____ (adjective). Then we played more games and took lots of _____ (plural noun).

Before the party ended, each guest received a _____ (noun) to take home. Everyone thanked me for inviting them and said they had a _____ (adjective) time.

It was truly one of the happiest birthdays I have ever had.
