

School Days

This morning, I packed my _____ (noun) and walked to school feeling _____ (adjective). I knew it would be a special day because our teacher had planned several exciting activities.

During our first lesson, we learned about _____ (school subject) and were asked to _____ (verb) a project with our classmates. My group used _____ (plural noun), _____ (plural noun), and plenty of creativity to complete our work.

Later, my best friend brought a _____ (noun) for show-and-tell. Everyone gathered around to see it and ask questions.

At recess, I spotted a _____ (animal) near the playground. My friends and I tried to _____ (verb) after it, but it disappeared behind the swings.

For lunch, I ate _____ (food) and drank _____ (drink) while talking with my classmates. After lunch, we _____ (verb-past) a fun educational game that helped us learn new things.

In the afternoon, our teacher read a _____ (adjective) story and asked us to share our ideas. Everyone participated and worked together respectfully.

When the bell _____ (verb-s), we packed our _____ (plural noun) and headed home. It had been a very _____ (adjective) day filled with learning, friendship, and fun.