

A Gift of Grace

This little candy holds a sign,
Of grace and love so pure and kind.
We cannot earn the gifts we're given,
For grace comes freely down from heaven.

God's mercy meets us where we are,
And shines on us like morning stars.
So as you enjoy this Christmas treat,
Remember grace is just as sweet.

His gentle love can calm our fears,
And give us hope through all our years
When we feel lost or cannot see,
His grace reminds us to believe.

Give thanks for love that never ends,
And share that kindness with your friends.
